INFORMATION ABOUT THE U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Below are the titles of six mimeographed documents which can be supplied in limited quantities only by the editor of the Department of Agriculture's employee house organ, USDA. Nos. 1, 3, and 4 are kept current by making revisions whenever this becomes essential. No. 2 is brought up-to-date in the Office of the Solicitor September 1, and a new issue of No. 6 appears October 1 and March 1 of each year. No. 5 is not revised.

Please send orders by interoffice messenger service, in Washington, and by mail from the field. Do not order all the documents unless you really need them all. If you want more than half dozen copies of any of them, it may become necessary for you to borrow our stencil, or cut your own, and run them. Be sure to give the name of your agency, which is more important than your room number.

As our facilities are limited please do not order by telephone unless urgent; in that case call Ext. 4649 and send your messenger to room 535-A. We also lack facilities to maintain mailing lists or to record advance orders. Just check the document you want, put your name and address on the bottom of this sheet, and send it to T. Swann Harding, Office of Information, Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

- No. 1. Origin, Structure, and Functions of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
 - No. 2. Abridged List of Federal Laws Applicable to Agriculture (Including Reference to Former Functions).
 - No. 3. Biographies of Persons in Charge of Federal Agricultural Work, 1836 to Date.
 - No. 4. Condensed History of the U. S. Department of Agriculture (useful for orientation).
 - No. 5. Our Department Scientists (A popular discussion of past outstanding achievements of some of our famous natural science research workers).
 - No. 6. Important Recent Achievements of Department of Agriculture Scientists.
